District Attorney Sandra Doorley Announces Sentencing of Henrietta Teen Kevin Minemier for Attempted Murder in Wegmans' Stabbing

District Attorney Sandra Doorley announced today, Friday, January 20, 2012, that Kevin Minemier was sentenced to 20 years in prison with 5 years post-release supervision for the Attempted Murder and Assault of Nicole Bean and Assault of Mustafa Said, who was stabbed by Minemier when Said came to Ms. Bean's rescue nearly a year ago inside a Wegmans grocery store on Calkins Road in Henrietta.

Minemier, 19, pled guilty to the charges of Attempted Murder in the Second Degree, two counts of Assault in the First Degree, and two counts of Assault in the Second Degree. Because Minemier pled guilty to the entire indictment, his sentencing was at the discretion of Monroe County Court Judge Victoria Argento.

On the night of January 25, 2011, Minemier and Nicole Bean, 17, were shopping together inside the Henrietta store when Minemier grabbed a knife on a store display and stabbed Bean numerous times in the eye and head. Ms. Bean had befriended Minemier only weeks before. Two other shoppers, Mustafa Said, 19, and Chris Patino, 16, both of Henrietta, heard Bean screaming and came to her aid. Said was stabbed in the hand while trying to get the knife away from Minemier.

First Assistant District Attorney Kelly Wolford says, "Mr. Minemier's actions on January 25, 2011, forever changed the lives of Nicole and Mustafa and those who know and love them. No period of incarnation can ensure that society can be protected from Mr. Minemier."

Ms. Bean and Mr. Said are still both recovering from their physical injuries. Orders of protection were issued until January, 2039 for Ms. Bean, Mr. Mustafa, and Chris Patino. Restitution was requested and ordered but the amount will be determined at a future date.
